Head Count: 13 - Voting Residents, 1 -Non-Resident

Supervisor Manoleas went over the Rules of Order and who is eligible to vote.

Motion by Debbie Manoleas, supported by Michele Dedoe to approve the June 29, 2024 Annual Meeting minutes with correction to page 2. Vote: 13-0. Motion Carried.

Supervisors Report:

Fiscally doing good, happy with what's going on in the township. Happy with employees and their performance.

Public Comment:

Bill Dedoe – wanted to know when chloride is going to be applied to roads.

Scott – property at Imlay City and Rabidue there is an extreme amount of truck traffic, dirt, dust. Wants to know what can be done. Supervisor Manoleas replied that he applied for a permit for a lagoon. Will be done soon because he is building a house. Working on getting it resolved. It's permitted and legal what property owner is doing.

Bill Sampson - asked what a lagoon is? Average of 20-25 trucks going by. Walls cracking in their house because of trucks.

Judy Sampson – trucks coming by are rattling their house. Dust is an issue. Wants to know if ordinances can be changed for what is allowed in their area.

Bonnie Klause – regarding issue in neighborhood. Still has not received a written response to her complaint. Very frustrated. Feels there is ordinances that need to be changed. Deep hole in neighbors back yard. Need direction. Wants a response from her complaint.
